

COPYRIGHT NOTICE

These copies are provided for your personal use only, and are not to be resold, copied, digitized, or reproduced in any manner without written permission, except as permitted under the fair use provisions of copyright law. For example, if you wish to quote (beyond fair use) from the records held by the Upper Midwest Jewish Archives for a dissertation, article, book, or other publication, you may need to obtain written permission from the UMJA and potentially from individual donors, depending on gift agreements for the collection.

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U. S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, and research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
