SOCIAL CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENTS

Entertains Wednesday at Tea—Athletic Girls Have First Picnic of Season—Other Social News.

Mrs. D. M. Keith entertains Wednesday afternoon at an informal tea, as is her weekly custom, at her home, 420 North Main street.

Mrs. Genevieve Barry Burnham, wife of Lieutenant Harold Burnham, 332d field artillery, Camp Grant, will sing a group of French and English songs, accompanied by Miss Marion E. Welch. Mrs. Burnham has been heard on several programs here and has a beautiful soprano voice.

The Girls' Athletic club of Ellis school, organized by Miss Birkland, one of the popular teachers of the school, spent an enjoyable afternoon together Monday. The club girls, accompanied by Miss Birkland, and Mrs. Johnson, went on a hike to the stone quarry in the neighborhood of Lincoln park, where they had lunch.

The Epworth league of Epworth M. E. church will sponsor a spring concert at the church Thursday evening, including music by a mandolin club, saxophone quartet, solos by Lloyd Rowles of Camp Grant, readings by Miss Viola Williams and trombone solos by Herman O'May.

Two events of a social nature for the week were announced yesterday at the State Street Baptist church.

Tuesday evening the regular party for the men at the camp will be held. Seventy-five men from the camp have been invited and others are expected. They will be the guests of the young people of the church, who are to be assisted in the entertainment by Miss Edna Geister, the national worker who is here to assist in that type of work. The gathering promises to be full of interest.

The other event of the week that promises unusual interest is an entertainment given on Thursday evening by the ambulance corps of the 341st regiment under the direction of Lieut. Mousley. A most interesting and unique entertainment is to be put on by these men including the work of an ambulance corps in real service. There is to be also a mock trial, and other by-play to fill up a most interesting evening. The Thursday evening is under the direction

Joseph Rosenblatt, who gives liturgical program at B'nai B'rith Hall tonight.

CELEBRATED CANTOR IN PROGRAM TONIGHT

Joseph Rosenblatt Gives Program at B'nai B'rith Hall This Evening.

Joseph Rosenblatt, the famous Jewish cantor, will give a program of liturgical music this evening at 7:30 o'clock at B'nai B'rith hall on West State street, to which all soldiers and those interested are invited. The concert is arranged through the courtesy of Mr. J. H. Krause of this city, who is a personal friend of the singer and who invited him to come to Rockford to give a program. Rosenblatt gave up a concert in Cleveland to come to sing to the Camp Grant soldiers and Rockford public.

Mr. Samuel Neveleff, personal representative of Cantor Rosenblatt, was in Rockford this morning arranging details of the program. Sunday Rosenblatt gave a program at the Auditorium, Chicago, at which time more than two thousand people were turned away, so large was the attendance. Yesterday Maestro Campini of the Chicago grand opera company made Rosenblatt the offer of $1,000 a performance to join his forces.

The concert here will be free to the public and everyone interested in hearing the singer will be welcome. Light refreshments will be served following the program. Judge H. M. Fischer is to give an address. It is expected that there will be delegations from several of the surrounding towns.

o'clock. After the usual devotional service, Riley Martin, who spent several months in France, will give a lecture and show a collection of interesting pictures of the country. Members of the brotherhood and ladies will be entertained in the parlors of the church where a program will be given and refreshments will be served.

Miss Lydia Marie Bruce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bruce, 303 North Third street, and Clyde P. Stollar of West Liberty, West Virginia, now stationed at Camp Grant, were united in marriage last evening at the manse of First Presbyterian church. Rev. W. H. Fulton reading the ceremony.

Miss Mildred Humeston and Private Carl Carlson of the base hospital, Camp Grant, attended the couple and the bride's parents also witnessed the ceremony. A reception followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. B. Rosborro on Latham street.

Mr. Stollar was a student of theology at Bethany college before entering military service and is at the base hospital, Camp Grant. The couple left on a brief honeymoon trip to visit his parents in West Virginia. Mrs. Stollar will reside with her parents while Mr. Stollar is at Camp Grant.

TROCO

Our Exclusive Process Gives Troco Its Real Butter Flavor

Solves the Butter Problem

Troco is not merely a butter substitute; it is the successor to butter. It tastes exactly like the finest creamery butter and is as digestible as butter, with the same high nutritive value.

Troco solves the butter problem for those who hitherto have used nothing but the best creamery butter. These critical users say that rarely is butter so sweet and delicate in flavor.

But don't just ask for "nut butter" or "nut margarine" and expect to enjoy this de luxe flavor.

Ask for Troco and get the real butter flavor.

Made from Vegetable Fat

Troco is made from "fat" extracted from the white meat of coconuts—the fat from the same tropic delicacy you use shredded on cake.

This appetizing product is churned with pasteurized milk by an exclusive process which gives Troco the delicate butter flavor.

Troco contains no animal oils—nothing but pure vegetable fats and pasteurized milk for butter flavor. The Troco Company makes no animal oil products. It specializes on this one product.

Ask your dealer for a capsule of the vegetable coloring used by butter makers.

Compare Troco with the Best Creamery Butter

The test of Troco is on the table, in comparison with the best creamery butter. This is where it wins butter lovers.

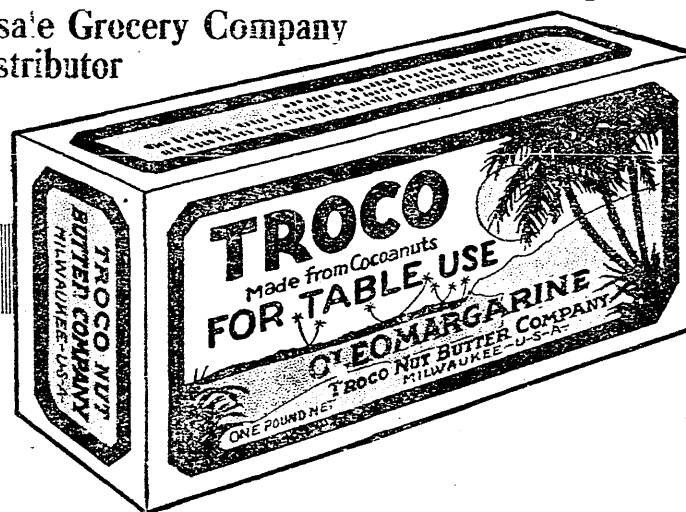

For cooking it has no equal, either in results or from the standpoint of economy. Troco goes farther than butter.

Old laws, made before Troco was invented, compel us to label it as an oleomargarine. This is extremely misleading.

Troco is a quality product used in homes where only the best is tolerated. Here flavor, quality and the assurance of fastidious manufacturing methods insure the popularity of Troco.

ATHLETIC EVENTS AT COLLEGE LAST NIGHT

Basketball Cup Presented at Annual Indoor Athletic Meet at Rockford College.

Rockford college students held their annual indoor athletic meet last night in the college gymnasium, the athletic work of the year closing up with a fine exhibition of floor and apparatus work and folk dancing. Miss Frances Bokius, '15, Rockford college and a graduate of the department of physical education at Wellesley, has had charge of this work this year.

The contests resulted as follows: first place won by 1921; second place, 1920; third place, 1919; fourth place, 1918. Individual winners in apparatus work were: Ruth Wilson for 1920, but 18½ points; Doris Dellicker, second by 17½ points for 1921; Gladys Koche of 1918, fourth by 17 points; Lois Glenn for 1919, third by 17½ points.

Running high jump: first place, Dorothy Williams, freshman, 10 points, 4 feet, 2 inches; second place, Hazel Miners, junior, 7 points; third place, V. Schneider and R. Wilson, sophomores, tied by 5 points.

"R's" were presented to Margaret Seymour, Beatrice Warner, Viola Redding, Lenore Hurst and Marguerite Koch, who had scored 500 points. R. C. pins went to the following seniors, Gladys Koch, Ruth Bennett, Elizabeth Morrison and Estle Russell, who had 700 points.

At the close of the contests President Gulliver presented the cup to Frances Rohrer, captain of the freshman team, recently winners in the finals. Judges were Miss Estelle Bonnell, Miss Gladys Baldwin, Miss Allen and Miss Enid Beaty.

Art Guild

The two day art course sponsored by the Rockford Art Guild opened last evening at the high school auditorium, the theme of this second course being "Interior Decoration." Ross Crane, whose lectures are popular with local audiences, was the speaker and illustrated his talk by the arranging of a portable room on the stage.

Last night's special subject was

MOVIE ACTRESSES AND THEIR HAIR

Did it ever occur to you that every movie actress you have seen has lovely hair, while the most popular count their curls as their chief beauty? In fact, many are leading ladies just because of their attractive looks. Inquiry among them discloses the fact that they bring out all the natural beauty of their hair by careful shampooing, not with any soap or makeshift, but with a simple mixture by putting a teaspoonful of Canthrox (which they get from the drugist) in a cup of hot water and applying this instead of soap. This full cup of shampoo liquid is enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. After its use, the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. The hair is so fluffy that it looks much heavier than it is, its luster and softness are delightful.

"The How and Why of a Beautiful Home," and Mr. Crane by elimination of inartistic furnishings and the substitution of harmonious articles brought the idea of the well arranged room to the audience.

Two beautiful pictures, a figure subject by Carl Buehr and landscape by Frank Peyraud, attracted much attention. This afternoon Mr. Crane spoke at 2:10 o'clock and will speak again this evening at 8 o'clock. Not only the guild members and extension course members are admitted, but the public may attend at a small fee.

Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Cressy, 217 North Winnebago street.
