

J. ORECKOVSKY PURCHASES DEPARTMENT STORE SITE

The six-story brick building at First street and Second avenue West, now occupied by the First Street Department store, has been purchased by Joseph Oreckovsky, proprietor of the store, from Charles A. Duncan and associates, the deal being put through yesterday.

The consideration was not made public.

The new owner will immediately add the third floor of the building to his store space and will make similar use of the other floors as rapidly as business demands added room.
