

Personal.

A. E. Wood, Casselton, D. T. is again in the city.

Joe LaRose came up from Two Harbors yesterday on the Dove.

Dr. Austin came over from Waupaca yesterday and is registered at the Merchants.

John G. Howard goes to Montana some time next week to look over his mining property near Butte City.

At the Merchants: H. C. Horris, C. L. Vance, John McGullis, St. Paul; L. M. Willcuts, Columbia, D. T.

Prevost, the agent for the Harvard sewing machine company, came back last night from a business trip to Tower.

J. M. Oveson, of Rice's Point, returned on the Fremont Wednesday evening from a visit of two weeks at Houghton.

E. H. Grandmont, proprietor of the Vermillion house at Tower, passed through the city last evening en-route for Minneapolis.

E. Evans, a resident of Tonawanda, N. Y., who is largely interested in Duluth property, was registered yesterday at the Merchants.

E. C. Doty, Esq., an old acquaintance of Joe Christy's, who hails from Mifflintown, Pa., is now in Duluth, and may open a law office here.

E. H. Berger, the bookkeeper of the Duluth National Bank, is at his post again, after a vacation spent among friends in the East.

Col. L. J. Baines leaves this morning for Chippewa Falls, Wis., and will go from there to attend the term of the United States court at Winona.

R. P. Edson's wife and family arrived from Caro, Mich., yesterday afternoon. Mr. Edson has purchased from C. L. Watrous his house on Third street and Sixth avenue east, and will move into it at once.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Millar, of Grand Marais, were at the St. Louis yesterday. Mr. Millar left on the Stewart for home, and his wife took passage on the Fremont for Houghton, where she will spend some time among her relatives.

At the S. Louis: Miss M. E. Hicks, Grand Marais; M. Frankel, Wm. Evans, F. B. Ross, Henry Hasenwinkle, St. Paul; Geo. F. Bolles, Atlanta, Ga.; L. Rosenfield, Minneapolis, F. C. Erickson, Montreal; W. R. Torrance, N. Y. N. J. June, Gus Heller, Henry Gottman, Chicago.

Messrs. Paine, of N. P. Junction, Clendenning, Gellespie and Caldwell, of Minneapolis, and Alex Fraser, all interested in the White Fish Lake mines, left on the Stewart last night to visit their property. Some four or five men were working at the mine during the winter and the owners have gone to see what there is to show for it.