

Gomberg-Roos.

Wm. Gomberg, proprietor of the Hayes Block Furniture store, was engaged to Miss Bertha Roos, at the home of the bride, 129 First avenue west, on Sunday. The young lady was formerly employed by Messrs. Silberstein & Bondy, and the occasion was made one of great festivity. After the ceremony, which was quite elaborate, according to the Hebrew custom the interested parties were escorted to the house of Mr. B. Silberstein, where about seventy-five invited guests were in waiting for them, and where the latter part of the afternoon and the evening were spent in mirth and jollity. Music and song, intermingled with good cheer furnished from well filled tables occupied the time. Both the bride and groom have a large circle of acquaintances who join in wishing for their future happiness.
