

REQUIRED TO SHOW CAUSE.

Samuel Loeb Desires to Know Why He Should Vacate.

In the case of Charles D. Campbell and Patrick Doran against Samuel Loeb, a petition of the defendant to have the sheriff, the plaintiffs and their attorney to show cause today why defendant should be ousted from a certain strip of land, was filed in district court. Defendant asks for a stay of proceedings under the judgment and execution given in said case till further orders from the court. A new trial is also demanded.

Judge Cant issued an order that the persons mentioned in the petition appear in district court today to show cause as requested in the petition. The court also ordered a stay of proceedings.
