

URING the past week everybody has been trying to make everybody else happy, and the days in every sould, been have passed delightfully. Each home has had its holiday fun, and the spirit has been abroad to such an extent that there have been Christmas trees and childentons where they were never joilifications where they were never thought of before. On Wednesday last even the dignified Century Club set has a Unristmas tree and all the incident fun-The ladies were as happy as a group of

There have been a few large weddings both on this and the other side of the bay, and a small army of people have encated themselves out of another anniversary in the year by plighting their vows on every one's holiday.

One of the most delightful affairs of the past week was the house-warming given lust Tuesday, from 3 until 5 o'clock, by the ladies of the Philomath Club in theh cheory new quarters at the corner of Bush street and Van Ness avenue. The occa-sion was quite as much of a delight to a majority of the members as to their visitors, for the move was in the hands of a committee, and had been accomplished in a short time. The rooms, which are inviting without a flower or a branch to adorn thom, were in the prettlest possible festive decoration. From the decorate up the stairs and to the main room hero festive decoration. From the doorway up the stairs and to the main room hero paims were arched, and held by bright red ribbons. The great open freplace in the main room was banked with helly berries and greens. In the tearcoms the same graceful scheme was carried out.

There was a most gracious welcome for all, and interesting entertainment and plenty of good cheer.
Mits. I. Lowenberg, who has been the homorod president since the organization of the club, four years ago, introduced Alias Julia Doane, Miss breyman, Miss Fay, Miss Ernestine Goldman and Arthur Fickenscher, who contributed to an excollent programme. In addition there was a string orchestra in attendance.
The rooms were crowded with the members and their friends, and the special guests of the club were the executive boards of the Century, Seriesis, Laurei hall, Forum and Culifornia clubs.
The rooms were formerly occupied by a whist club, and are well suited to the needs of the Philomaths, who most twice a month, when papers written by the members are read and musical numbers enjoyed. A few times each year they give an open meeting.

DR. HUNTER'S onsumption NEW BOOK on PUBLISHED FOR FREE CIRCULATION,

DR. ROBERT HUNTER, recognized everywhere as the greatest living authority on diseases of the breathing organs, has just published a book on Consumption and other diseases of the Throat and Lungs. This book has created a sensation in medical and newspaper circles, because it shows beyond any quiestion that Consumption, AS TREATED BY DR. HUNTER, is a curable disease. The book tells plainly the true nature of Consumption, its causes, its unmistakable symptoms, to be prevent it and HOW IT CAN BE RADICALLY CURED.

The book is of such great importance to the welfare of the whole people that it has been decided to issue an edition of 50,000 copies in paper covers for free general distribution.

From the New York Herald: "It seems, after many disappointments and false rumors of the cures for consumption, that the treatment, as discovered and practiced by Dr. Robert Hunter, 117 West Forty-fifth st., New York, has accomplished results so satisfactory that this dread disease need no longer be classed among the incurables." From the New York Sun: "Dr. Hunter's recent book on consumption and his wonderful cures that have been reported effectually remove all doubts as to the curability of this dread disease."

Any reader of the "San Francisco Chronicie" can secure one of these free paper-covered copies by simply sending a request to Dr. ROBERT HUNTER, 117 West 45th St., New York.
