

LAKE BREEZES.

Kelly's hat hospital for sick hats.
North Land Printery, Torrey Bldg.
Tibbetts, Undertaker, 31 E. Sup. St.
Volland's Hat Factory, 14, 1st. Ave. E.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Andrew Pease and Ella Lidbeig.

A decided success. Primus creamery butter, manufactured by Bridgeman & Russell.

Sons have been born to Mr. and Mrs.
Oscar T. Mitchell, 527 West Fourth street, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schumann, 258½ East First street.

A large supply of American beauties, roses, carnations, gladioluses and sweet peas, fresh cut from our green house, at the lowest prices. Elschen Bros., leading florist, 129 West Superior street.

Building permits were issued to J. W.
McLeod yesterday for the construction of an $800 frame cottage on Minnesota avenue, between Dundee and Argyle streets, and one for $500 on lower Lake avenue.

The Minneapolis Tribune says: "In Signor Valenza's hands the harp is an instrument suited to any mood, and he interprets well." Don't miss the entertainment at St. John's English Lutheran church this evening.

Sam Rockling and Max Morcog, two West End boys, were arrested yesterday on complaint of Watchman Baker, of the Northern Pacific, charged with stealing some metal from cars. Their hearing was set for this morning at 10 o'clock.

Lottie Fortin, the 8-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fortin, 1116 Garfield avenue, died yesterday of meningitis. The funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock from the house and interment will be at Calvary cemetery.

The body of Louis H. Rogers, who was drowned in the St. Louis river Sunday, has not yet been recovered. It is expected to rise to the surface of its own accord about the latter part of the week and a man will be engaged to patrol the river for it at that time.

Louis and Maurice Cohen, two peddlers, were arrested yesterday and brought into court by Humane Officers Witherow to answer to the charge of abusing their horse. Both entered pleas of not guilty and will have a chance to explain to the court Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

I. Johannian, a native of Persia, will give a free lecture on that country, its people and customs, at Hope church, corner of Fifth street and Sixth avenue East, at 7:30 Friday evening, August 30. He will speak in the English language. He has given several addresses at different churches to the great satisfaction of all who heard him.

The deaths of three more young children were reported at the health office yesterday. George, the 11-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dahlstrom, 2001 West Seventh street, of cholera infantum; Wilfred, the 18-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
D. Poirier, 7 South Fifty-seventh avenue West, of cholera infantum; Ida, the 6-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Tremblay, West Duluth, of entero colitis.

Rev. J. R. Johnston, of Preston, Ontario, arrived in the city yesterday from Minneapolis, where he had been spending the past two weeks as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Everington, and occupying pulpits both Sundays in St.
Paul. Mr. Johnston left for his home yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Leo Wearne. The latter will visit with his uncle and aunt until the arrival of Company "I" in Buffalo, where he will join and go into camp with them.

A deed was filed in the office of the register of deeds yesterday by which Hutchinson Bevier conveys to the Wolvin Building company, lots 45 and 47, West First street, Duluth proper, First division, for a consideration of $50,000.
The deed is subject to a mortgage of $39,000 to the Minnesota Loan and Trust company, dated in May last and since assigned to Charles W. Nelson.
Only $9,000 of this mortgage has been paid to the grantor and the stipulation is made that the building company assume that sum with interest due, as well as the balance of the mortgage.
Bevier, however, only paying the $9,000 already received by him. The property is that upon which the Lerch barn stood and is the site for the new building to be erected for the Steel corporation offices.

The funeral of Alexander McLeod, the young lad who died from injuries received in a fall down the hatchway of the steamer Jay Gould, will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from Stewart's undertaking parlors. Interment will be at Forest Hill.

Nice music, nice time, O-at-ka tonight.