S. S. Snively says that it is remarkable the way Iowa people are picking up farm lands around Duluth. Several parties were here this week, but a great rush is expected next week. There is a cheap railway rate next week, and already fifty parties have notified Mr. Snively that they will be here to look at lands. Eighteen will come in one party alone, and ten or a dozen in another.

Two deaths were reported at the health office yesterday. Martha, the infant child of Martin Christopherson, 414 East First street, died of cholera infantum; interment in Park Hill cemetery. Pearl, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Heaton, 502 East First street, of convulsions; interment in Forest Hill cemetery.

V. J. Park, of Wausau, Wis., a special agent of the land department, arrived in the city yesterday to join the other special agents sent by the department to make investigations of swamp lands in Minnesota. F. C. Dufrees, of Crookston, has been assigned to this district for a similar purpose.

Maurice and Louis Cohen, two peddlers, were tried in police court yesterday on the charge of abusing their horse. The former was found guilty and fined the costs of suits, amounting to $7.24. Louis, the father of the other, was acquitted. The charge was preferred by Humane Officer Withrow.

The Duluth Fashions left yesterday for their three-day meet with Ashland. These are the games that have been looked forward to for some time by the fans of both cities and promise to be the best played of the season. As stated yesterday, Lambert will not accompany the team, which weakens it considerably. However, the report reaches here that the Ashland second baseman is also on the shelf, and if true will rather even up matters.

The remains of A. A. Hibbard, who died a short time ago in Tennessee, will arrive in the city at 2 o'clock this afternoon and be taken direct to Forest Hill cemetery. Mr. Hibbard was an old resident of this city.

At a meeting of the labor day committee last night it was found to be impossible to secure three bands for the demonstration and it was therefore decided to head the first and third divisions only with bands. The second division will have to get along without one.

James R. Bennett, of St. Cloud, accompanied by his wife, is in the city. Mr. Bennett not only is prominent in Democratic circles in Stearns county but a great admirer of Charles A. Towne. Last evening, a quiet little dinner party was given, in which the following participated: Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Towne and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bennett.

The county board of poor commissioners will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening. Secretary Cook of the poor board says that there are quite a number of applications for aid just now, many of them being for medical assistance. In his office in the Mesaba block, Mr. Cook has a very fine sample of millet grown at the farm. It is fully five feet high and of excellent quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bevis and C. J. Allen, of the Y. M. C. A., took seventeen of the association Juniors for an outing at Mountain Iron yesterday. The day was spent pleasantly, the children being given a chance to look over the mines. The day before Professor Hamaker and his wife took twenty of the Juniors to the range town.
