PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. O. Lucken, who has been spending the summer here with friends and relatives, left for her home yesterday.

Mrs. Schuyler has gone on a visit to St. Paul.

R. R. Forward has returned from North Dakota, where he has been the past ten days on a hunting trip.

B. Bever, of Marshfield, Wis., was a guest at the St. Louis yesterday.

Thomas Kearney, a resident of Winton, on the sawmill suburb of Ely, was a Duluth visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Pastoret, of Two Harbors, were in the city last evening.

John Redy, an Ashland lumberman, was at the St. Louis last evening.

Mrs. George Lydick was down from Cass Lake last evening.

Earl M. Rogers, with the Scanlon-Brooks company at Cloquet, was at the St. Louis last night.

J. D. Zien left over the Omaha last evening for Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Howard went to Middlebrook last evening to spend Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morrow left over the South Shore yesterday for Mackinaw, where they will honeymoon.

Nick Witt returned yesterday from a visit to the state fair. He reports a very enjoyable trip, but says that it made his neck stiff "rubbering" at the balloon.

Hector McLean left yesterday to begin a four years' course at Princeton.

H. G. Clapp, son of Senator Clapp, accompanied by the two Misses Clapp, arrived in the city last evening and are guests at the St. Louis. Senator Clapp is expected up this evening.

Charles J. Johnson, treasurer of Cook county, is here from Grand Marais. He will return home on the Argo this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving W. Lawrence of Minneapolis, are guests at the Spalding, as also are Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Baker of the same city.

Mrs. W. W. Croze, of Ely, was registered at the Spalding yesterday.

H. L. Van Meter, of St. Paul, is registered at the Spalding.

W. L. Sinclair, of Manchester, England, and Angus Sinclair, of New York, are guests at the St. Louis. They are old friends of Master Mechanic Smith of the D. M. & N. railway at Proctor.

James F. Murphy, representing the United Hatters of North America, was in the city yesterday in the interest of the hatters' label.