

sociation. Many Duluth birds will be shown at the Chicago show this month and a number will be sent to Indianapolis, Ind., in February.

Night Classes at Y. M. C. A.
Night classes in window card writing, shorthand dictation, grammar, arithmetic and electricity opened at the Y. M. C. A. last night with the promise of a large enrollment. Classes in mechanical and architectural drawing, English, business law, bookkeeping and penmanship will resume work Thursday night.

George E. Bellock to Return.
George E. Bellock, who is wanted by the local police on a charge of being implicated with James Kennedy in the assault and robbery of Joseph Altman at his West Superior street clothing store, has written the local authorities that he will come to Duluth to stand trial. Kennedy, now in the county jail, and Bellock will likely be taken before the grand jury.

Two Boys Are Remanded.
Charles Wright and Harry Sager, boys, charged with having stolen $40, a diamond ring and a purse containing $500 in negotiable paper, were arraigned before Judge Windom yesterday afternoon and remanded for hearing Saturday morning in juvenile court. Meanwhile they were turned over to Sheriff Bates.

Many Camps in Operation.
William O'Neil, of Cass Lake, superintendent of logging on the Chippewa reservations where timber is being cut under the Morris law, was at the St. Louis last evening. He said there are 42 camps in operation at present, and there is prospect of about three more being put in. The loggers have considerable timber skidded, but need more frost to get over the swamps and onto the lakes with heavy loads.

Burial of Mrs. Smith.
The remains of Mrs. Martha Smith, who died at 2 Chester Terrace Monday night, after a long illness, will be taken to her old home at Wolcott, N. Y., for burial. She leaves seven children, Mrs. A. C. Barthe, Mrs. E. D. Edson and Mrs. D. H. Costello and Clayton C. Smith of Duluth; Lee L. Smith of Corey, Pa.; Frank Smith of New York, and C. R. Smith of Detroit. Her husband died in 1900.

Morris Goes to Minneapolis.
Judge Page Morris will go to Minneapolis today and return Friday. He will open the January term of the United States district and circuit court next Tuesday. Judge Charles F. Amidon of Fargo, N. D., will arrive in the city Thursday, Jan. 11, and assist Judge Morris in holding court. The special land agent's office will be occupied as a court room by Judge Morris, and Judge Amidon will sit in the regular court room.

Will Soon Name Masters.
The annual meeting of the officials of the Pittsburg Steamship company with the masters and others connected with the company will begin in Cleveland today and continue tomorrow, winding up with a dinner at which all will be present. W. M. Jeffery, auditor; H. W. Brown, agent, and A. L. McGregor, chief clerk, of Duluth, are in attendance. The appointments of masters for the season of 1906 will be announced after the meeting.

Range Editors in City.
The press of the iron range portion of St. Louis county is represented in Duluth today by Ransom Metcalfe and David E. Cuppernull, Virginian, Virginia; C. M. Atkinson, the Mesaba Ore, and A. E. Premmer, Tribune, Hibbing; William E. Hannaford, Enterprise, Virginia; Skeel and Perham, News, Eveleth; C. E. Koen, Star, Eveleth; W. E. Talboys, Herald, Chisholm; Oscar LaFrance, Tribune, Chisholm; Peter Schaefer, Miner, Ely; Fred Burgess, News, Tower.

LAKE BREEZES

Engraving—North Land Printery.

Become Citizens.

Samuel Oreckovsky and Morris Jener, Russians, were yesterday granted full citizenship by Judge Page Morris.

Buhl Church Is Incorporated.

Bishop McGolrick, Joseph F. Buh and others yesterday filed articles of incorporation in the offices of the register of deeds for the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart of Buhl.

Ferry Bridge Nearly Ready.

R. Murchison, secretary of the board of public works, yesterday said the aerial bridge would probably be in operation the last of the week. Workmen are now repairing the track.

Action by H. Wendtlandt.

Herman Wendtlandt has entered a suit in municipal court against John T. Mick and it has been arranged to have the issue heard today. One hundred and eighty dollars for services is involved.

Burial of Engle Krough.

The remains of Engle Krough, a lumberman, aged 24, who was killed in New Year's day by the falling of a tree, near Albion, St. Louis county, will be interred at the cemetery at Rothsay, Minn., today.

Increases Capital Stock.

Amending its articles of incorporation to increase the capital stock to $60,000 the Winifred Iron Mining company yesterday filed the change with the register of deeds. The money must be paid in full before the company engages in business and will be subscribed in shares of $100 each. A. M. Chisholm and A. M. Farrington are the principal officers.

Grand Jury Begins Work.

District court will open this morning with the grand jury in session. Eighty-nine cases are listed for trial and the criminal calendar promises to be larger than during the preceding session of court, owing to the number of cases of assault in the range towns.

Will Employ 200 Men.

It is understood that the calcium carbide plant that is to be located at Duluth will furnish employment to 200 men. The matter of a site will doubtless be determined in a few days.

Meeting for Alderman McEwen.

There will be a meeting in the interest of Ald. W. E. McEwen in the Labor World hall tonight, when it is expected there will be a large gathering of friends and supporters, since the ward representative is unable to go in to active campaigning, because of illness.

T. Dushay Admits Guilt.

Thomas Dushay, 24 years of age, who has been employed at the Temple roller skating rink, pleaded guilty to stealing an overcoat from the photograph gallery of Fenney & Adams several days ago, before Judge Windom in municipal court yesterday afternoon. He was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Certificates for Red Men.

A suggestion made by the commissioner of Indian affairs to the department of the interior at Washington was received by the local land office yesterday. It proposes that all Indians seeking allotment be given certificates of application to prevent trespass upon their lands by whites, who now disregard the claims of the red men.

John Anderson Turned Down.

John Anderson, whose application for homestead entry on $\frac{1}{2}$ of sec. 4, n. $\frac{1}{2}$ of sec. 34 and n. $\frac{1}{2}$ of sec. 35, township 66 north, range 20 west, made in January, 1905, was provisionally cancelled by the general land office, and was finally cancelled by a letter received at the local office yesterday.

Mrs. Ayers Wants Divorce.

Demanding a divorce for desertion and the restoration of her maiden name, the wife of William B. Ayers, formerly Meta Eyerth, yesterday applied for a divorce in district court. The couple were married in 1903 and have no children. Thomas S. Wood is representing the plaintiff.

Will Make Tour of Cuba.

George H. Lounsberry, a Duluth building contractor, who has been executing some heavy contracts in Slouss City, La., has returned, and he and his family will leave in a few days for Havana, on an extended tour of Cuba.

Collins Goes to Calumet.

Edward J. Collins, superintendent of the Wolverine & Arizona mine at Bisbee, and his brother, Thomas H. Collins of Calumet, in charge of the development work on the Keweenaw mining and railroad proposition, were in the city yesterday and both left for Calumet last evening.

Funeral of Mrs. Olson.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Olson, aged 49, who died Monday morning at her home, 202 East Seventh street, will be held today from the Stewart undertaking parlors, with interment at Park Hill cemetery. She leaves a husband, but no children.

Carr Opens Brokerage Office.

Walter W. Carr, formerly a partner of J. A. Minnear & Co., stock brokers, of Laurium, Mich., has opened a brokerage office at 202 and 203 Manhattan building for handling unlisted securities. He has special wires in connection with the Wallace H. Hopkins Co., who have private wires for carrying quotations and gossip concerning unlisted securities.

Poultry Show Is Closed.

The tenth annual show of the Duluth Poultry show closed at 10 o'clock last night, being the most successful in point of the size and quality of the exhibit, and also in the variety of birds shown. A number of out of town poultry experts saw the show and declared that it was one which would have done much credit to a larger as-