MAX NORDAU SPEAKS Ringing Words

Says History Has Not Made An Onward Step for Jews in Eight Hundred Years.

PITTSBURG, June 9—The consideration of the amended constitution of eration of the amended constitution of the Federation of American Zionists occupied nearly all of joday's first seession. Greetings from eminent Jews of the world were received and read at the convention. This telegram from Vienna was sent by Dr. Herz:

"To the Zionist convention, Pittsburg—The situation of our Russian brethren is very serious and calls for our most earnest attention. A great emigration movement from Russia is to be expected. We shall bring to the Basie congress a program which, we belleve, will help our people. With Zion's greating. (Signed) Herz." From Barritz came these words of Dr, Max Nordau:

"I trust you will continue to develop into a power to the honor of American Jewry and to the benefit of the Jewish people, whose position in the world is more appailing than it has been at any time in the last century. The name of Kisinev, written with letters of blood and fire in the other and ever new martyrology of Israel, is suffiment.

It shows that for our people there is no such thing as progress. For us history has not moved onward by one step for the last eight hundred years. We are still in the fearful period of the crusades, when the plous warriors of the Cross trained themselves to their heroic work by the wholesale slaughter of Jews and the looting of defenseless greaters. It shows also that Zloisan et al. The shows also that Zloisan the contract of the present hell. I would despair of Judaism and of humanity as well, if the free and happy Jews of America, were to turn a deaf car to the blood curdling tale of Kishinerl.

were to turn a deaf car to the blood curdling tade of Kishineft, following message: "Greetings to the Pittsburg convention. The Kishineft massacre has brought home to the blindest, the need of publicity and legally safeguarded home for our unhappy race. When you come to consider, where the legal to the property of th

"May the strenuous town of fire and steel in which you meet inspire you to build a great bridge over which Israel shall pass to his ancient home and his glorious future."
