MURDERER YOUNG AND HIS GIRL VICTIM SEPARATED IN DEATH, AS IN LIFE. AGAINST HIS REOUEST

Shot and Killed Himself and His Sneetheart, Ida Solemovitz.

Last Wish of Slayer of His Sweetheart Disregarded by Her Parents, Who Have Bitter Feeling Toward the Deceased Lover.

Separated in life, so too in death will John Young be separated from Ida Solemovitz, whom he professed to love, but shot down in cold blood in the kitchen in her home on Connor's Point Monday morning then shooting himself. Followed by a throng of relatives and mourning friends the remains of the girl were taken to their last resting place at the Hebrew cemetery at South Superior yesterday afternoon from the synagogue. Young's remains will be interred at heard from Young was that he and the girl be who had just come from La Crosse tion was made by the relatives of. Developments yesterday tended to either with this end in view and the confirm the theory of insanity as an family of the girl felt too bitterly explanation of Young's awful deed. toward Young to have consented had Physicians who have devoted some it been possible to arrange it. Her time to study as alienists are among friends insist that she was not in love the principal supporters of the inwith him and that if she said the sanity theory, which they say is things attributed to her it was borne out by the incoherency of the merely in a teasing way as a girl letter of farewell. Neighbors speak of would talk to a good friend. Until the remains of Ida were removed from the Solemovitz home a Greenwood when absent relatives are crowd of friends and relatives gath- deed, insanity growing out of jealousy ered around the front door weeping and hopeless love is generally ac-One of the last requests made by and moaning. The grief of a slater cepted as the cause of the crime.

Young favorably and but one man was found who said that he had acted strangely for sometime before the Apparently Young had been exbeen his fondest hope. No proposi pitiable, as was that of the mother. ed his little dwelling and otherwise were premeditated.

One of the Victims of Monday's Tragedy.

Friends of Girl Say She Was Not in Love With Him and Must Have Been Joking With Him. Her Burial Sad.

improved and repaired to When he found that another was coming to take her entirely from him it is belleved it was more than he could

It was stated vesterday by Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald, 1015 Banks avenue, brother-in-law and sister of Young, that Young in their opinion, had written most of the farewell note found on him while at their house Sunday, a number of things supporting this belief. This and other disburied side by side and that this and of a brother who had also ar pecting to win Ida's consent to mar coveries has led the police to acwould be done is believed to have rived from out of town, was most ry him as he had painted and reroot cept that both murder and suicide