

HIBBING HEBREWS WILL BUILD A SYNAGOGUE

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

HIBBING, Jan. 31.—The Hebrews of Hibbing have organized in an effort to secure funds for the building of a synagogue here. Societies for this purpose have been formed by both the men and the women. The men's society, known as Agudas Achim, the United Brotherhood, elects the following officers: President, Charles Hallock; vice president, Max Rogalsky; treasurer, M. S. Greenblatt; secretary, M. Levenshon; trustees, E. S. Woolfan, I. Rosenberg, A. Freedman. The ladies' society is called the "Sisters of Peace," and its officers are: President, Mrs. Charles Hallock; vice president, Mrs. Jacob Kitz; secretary, Mrs. M. S. Greenblatt; treasurer, Mrs. M. Rogalsky; trustees, Mesdames Miller, Nides and Helstein.