BREVITIES

Depositions on the matter of an overcharge on a car of freight shipped on the Northern Pacific road from Allouez to Superior which was consigned to the city of Superior were taken at the office of Attorney Hanitch yesterday. City Attorney McIntosh appeared on behalf of the city. The depositions will be submitted to the state rate commission together with other facts in the car.

A chimney blaze at the residence 2203 Logan avenue gave the fire department a short run yesterday. The damage was nominal.

The suit of the city to recover the amount paid G. W. Roome on a well contract was taken up in the municipal court yesterday and will probably be finished up today. It is alleged that Roome "took up" part of the well after having been paid by the city.

Assistant City Attorney and Mrs. G. E. Dietrich together with H. W. Dietrich and family have returned from their old home at Avoca where they joined in a family reunion during the early part of the week.

President McCaskill of the local Normal school will be one of the principal speakers at a meeting of the teachers' association to be held at La Crosse on Saturday.

A Teachers' club consisting of members of the North Winona Teachers' association who are alumni of the state university, may be formed at the meeting of the association to be held at Eau Claire next week. Superior will be represented by Prof. A. D. S. Gillette of the local Normal school at the meeting.

The first of a series of dances to be given by the local lodge of Elks will take place at the lodge's quarters in the Hammond block this evening.

The funeral of William Francis the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Hanigan, 1213 Joan avenue who died Wednesday evening will be held from the residence to Calvary cemetery at 8 o'clock this morning.

The marriage of Lena H. Hoverson and Charles H. Bloomquist was celebrated at the new home of the couple, 1405 Eighth street, Wednesday evening. The Rev. O. N. Hitletoo pastor of the Swedish Methodist church officiated.

The engagement of Miss Carrie E. Durley of Superior and Edward D. Park of Duluth was announced at a tea given at the home of Mrs. C. P. White, Belknap street.

The Superior Stevedore association has granted an increase at 2½ cents per hour to its employes for night and Sunday work. The men have been paid at the rate of 20 cents per hour. Some 20 members are affected by this raise.

Miss Anna Taran and Joseph Averbrook were married at the Jewish synagogue this city. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to a large number of guests at Maryland hall.

Veronica Elske, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Richards, 1623 Banks avenue, died yesterday morning at the family residence. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the house to Calvary cemetery.

The funeral of L. Dorzek, whose remains have been held at Lezkge's undertaking rooms pending the location of relatives, has been arranged for by friends. It will be held at 8:30 this morning from the Polish Catholic church, St. Stanislaus, to Calvary cemetery.