MISS ABRAHAM AND DR. SCHWARTZ WED Union of Prominent Young People

Marked by Simple Ceremony.

Reception Follows Nuptials.

Only the relatives witnesed the marriage ceremony last night when Miss Claire Abraham became the bride of Dr. Arthur H. Schwartz of this city. Rabbi M. Lefkovitz of the Temple Emanuel read the service at 7:33 in Emanuel read the service at 7:33 in the living room at the residence of the bride's father, Albert Abraham, 1425 East First street. The service was simple, with Miss Eisle Silberstein and Mr. Rudolph Abraham, brother of the bride, as the only attendants. The bride wore a white embroidery gown over silk. She carried a Bible and a shower bouquet of illies of the valley. Miss Silberstein was in pink liberty sain with a bouquet of pink hyacinths. Mrs. Abraham was gowned in a grey voile.

A mandolin orchestra furnished the wedding music and also played during the reception which followed between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock. Ferns and white roses were employed to decorate the parlor and living room. Pink roses were used with the ferns in the dining room, which was in charge of Miss Deborah Leo, was in charge of Miss Deborah Leo,

Miss Miriam Levin and Miss Stella
Abraham. Funch was served by Miss Hazel Levin.

Among the out-of-town guests were:
Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schwartz, parents

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schwartz, parents of Dr. Schwartz, from Norway, Michi, Mr. and Mrs. Spadekar of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schloss of Minneapolits, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kaiser of Minneapolits, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Abyaham of Atlantic City, Mr. W. W. Wittig of Minneapolits and Max Abraham of Minneapolits and Max Abraham of Minneapolits.

Dr. and Mrs. Schwartz left last night for a wedding journey. On their return they will be at home in this city.