The past week in real estate circles summer holiday time and no one is in the best shirly described as one of great a hurry about business. The enquiry pomise. Nearly every realty dealer is active and the prospects for fall has a deal or two that is not definitely closed up, but which will be, probably. The best sale of the week was made in a short time. The fact is that the trade is temporarily duil. It is the large McCahill of Duluth, the preming wi of twe we 112-121.
