

CLASS PLAY USHERS IN COMMENCEMENT WEEK

"All Tangled Up," a Farce Comedy, at the Central High School Tonight—More Than Five Hundred Eighth Grade Pupils Will Be Graduated Wednesday and Thursday.

"All Tangled Up," a farce comedy in three acts, to be given this evening at the Central high school by the outgoing senior class, will be the first of the commencement week exercises at that school, as well as the first event to usher in this week's diploma giving.

The cast of characters for the class play is as follows:

Major Hollis Halliday, an easy going lawyer.....John Quinn
Lester McVey, his partner, Erling Mouton
Kneeling Plantum, a practical undertaker.....Robert Ely
Lieut. George Rapley, from the west.....Lawrence Jacques
Dennis O'Toole, a family treasure.....Leonard McHugh
Mrs. Halliday, "given to government".....Dorothy Olcott
Clara, her daughter.....Cleo Fenton
Verna, undertaker's daughter, secretly married to Lester McVey.....Marjorie Shepherd
Hulda, from Sweden.....Ruth Davis
Nels, Hulda's big brother.....Albert Johnson
Swan.....Albert Coddling

Between acts one and two, the Zenith, of 1909, the school annual, will be sold.

Robert Ely, president of the class, will deliver an address, and Harlow Watkins will give the class oration. Erling Mouton, assisted by the rest of the senior class, will sing "1909." The juniors will join the seniors in an interclass song.

The West End eighth grade students will receive their diplomas at the Central high school Wednesday afternoon, and Thursday afternoon the eighth grade students of the Central and East End schools will receive their diplomas.
