

CLOQUET MERCHANT WILL TAKE LONG REST

(News Tribune Special.)

CLOQUET, Minn., July 10.—Ike Summerfield, one of the oldest residents and business men in this city, today bid his friends farewell and left for the west where he will later settle in the banking business. Mr. Summerfield has not yet decided upon his location in the west but intends to visit the exposition at Seattle. He has disposed of his clothing business here to the Markowitz brothers, still retaining an interest in the store, however.
