

EVELETH JEWISH CHURCH HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

(Hange Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, Oct. 24.—The annual election of officers of the Jewish church was held last night in the synagogue on Jackson street. The contest over the vice presidency brought forth some rivalry, otherwise the election passed off quietly. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Frank Rabinowitz; vice president, Samuel Levant; secretary, Harry Levant; treasurer, Isador Shandeling; trustees, A. H. Sosnosky, Frank Weynberg, W. Kaner. A. Rubenstein was elected as center for the next year.
