

THE MILLER- ALBENBERG CO.

Throw Open Their Doors on Wednesday Afternoon for Inspection Only.

Store Ready for Business on Thursday Morning.

The new and palatial store of the Miller-Albenberg company at 105-107 West Superior street will throw open its doors on Wednesday (tomorrow) afternoon at 1 o'clock, for inspection only.

The firm makes the announcement that no goods will be sold during Wednesday afternoon as it is their purpose of holding open house for the entertainment of their friends and the public generally. They further state that the regular business of the company will begin on Thursday morning.

Many well-known salesladies who for the past several years have been employed in other prominent stores of the city have been engaged by the Miller-Albenberg company, and each and everyone of them will be most pleased to greet their friends and patrons in the new store.
