

ACCEPTING STOLEN GOODS IS CHARGE; HEARING TODAY

Claude Berry was arrested by Detective Terry, yesterday afternoon, charged with accepting stolen property and arraigned before Judge Windom. The date for his examination was set for this morning.

Berry, who it is understood was the chum of John Borner, under arrest for the larceny of $130 worth of jewelry from Garon Brothers, is accused by Borner with having had in his possession numerous gold bracelets and locket, part of the miscellaneous articles stolen.

Judge S. F. White appeared before the municipal court in behalf of the defendant yesterday afternoon. Bail was fixed at $250.
