

ANONIA SOCIETY TAKES UP WORKS OF RILEY

The members of the Anonia Literary society of the Central high school presented a James Whitcomb Riley program at the regular meeting yesterday afternoon. The members have decided to give programs which will embody the chief productions of each author studied. Next week Mark Twain is programmed. The Riley program was: Violin solo, Edith Karon; discussion of Riley's poems, Fanny Weinberg; readings from Riley's prose writings, Muriel Smith; and Esther Segerman; piano solo, May Simon.
