

High School News

Football songs were given yesterday morning in chapel. Principal Young said the game Friday with Blaine was the best exhibition of grit and good playing that he had ever seen in any high school game.

The tryout for the regular high school debating team will occur on Nov. 15 and 16. The question for the contest will be "Resolved that the Federal Government Establish a Parcels Post." It is the purpose of Coach Brackett to select two squads of six men each, and thus have four teams working on two questions. The reason for this is, that the Duluth school is entered in the state series and also in a triangular league with Cloquet high and Irving high of West Duluth. A debate with Minneapolis has been arranged for Dec. 15 at Minneapolis and this accounts for the early beginning of activities at Central this year.

An election of officers of the Freshman-Sophomore Literary society will be held Thursday afternoon.

Horace W. Reyner addressed the students in chapel yesterday morning.

The Musical society will meet for practice this afternoon. A. F. M. Custance will make arrangements to secure a soloist for each future meeting.

It has been necessary to postpone the opening of the lunch room until Thursday, when it is believed the carpenters will have finished all the work.

A challenge for a football game to be played between the Freshmen and Sophomore football teams next Saturday at Athletic park was issued by Floyd Lawson, president of the Freshman class. William Craig, president of the Sophomore class, made a short speech in which he accepted the challenge.

At the next meeting of the Schillerbund Literary society, the following program will be presented:

Reading of the roll call—To be answered by German proverb; song—chorus; reports—Henry Halenbeck, John Fredin; Music—Erna Rakowsky; original story—Lilly Moe; quartet—Loretta O'Gorman, Rosalind Bondy, Myrna Newell, Marjorie Baillie; introduction to play of "Elgensinn"—Lillian Levy; characters in play—Oscar Melander, May Dorland, Louise Murchison, Fanny Weinberg, Philip Halenbeck, Henry Halenbeck.

The Anonia Literary society held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon and presented a literary program. Plans were discussed for a Thanksgiving party in the biological laboratory. Marietta Miller and Mary Gulnn were appointed as the program committee for the Thanksgiving program.