The Dollar at the Door.
A lodging in the town.
The cherry ring of silver brought.
Intent to settle down.
The fellow it was wont to sight.
Was one I'm said to say.
Who did not haften to invite
The coin in town to star.

This most unpatriotic man.
Instead of being glad
To aid the dollar in the plan
To help the town it had.
The dollar came afar to roam
In other regions then—
And never to his town or home
That dollar came again.

Another dollar also came.
But met a man more kind—
A fellow with a different name.
More patriotic mind.
He asked it in, he bade it stay
And let the town to grow;
And never more it roamed away
Or cared afar to go.

From house to house that dollar went
And labored for the good
Of every man who sent
And all the neighborhood.
It helped the farmer's field to till.
To swing the workman's ax.
To build the church upon the hill
And pay the village tax.

Next time a dollar comes to town
Let's greet it with a cheer.
Don't send it off or turn it down.
But let it settle here—
For every dollar comes to roost
In some one's pocket here.
Lodge more dollar come to boost
The town a little more!

Miss Beyer a Bride Today.

A pretty church wedding and one of unusual interest to a large circle of friends took place this morning when Miss Rosemary Beyer, eldest daughter of Mr. Henry Beyer of 417 University avenue, was united in marriage to Michael Ambrose Morgan, son of Mr. Michael Ambrose Morgan. The church ceremony was without ostentation but very impressive and though no invitation was issued, a large company of the close friends of the young couple gathered to witness the taking of the nuptial vows and assist in the celebration of the nuptial mass.

Monsignor J. A. Lemieux, the church pastor, read the marriage service at 10 o'clock and the mass immediately followed. At the altar the bride was crowned in her traveling attire, a tailored suit of a rich tobacco brown shade with blue and white in harmonizing tones. Miss Nellie Keen was her only attendant and she wore a gown of navy blue with large black and white stripes. Charles Beyer of Havre, Mont., a brother of the bride, was the groom's escort.

The wedding dinner was served at high noon at the University avenue home of the bride's mother and the invited company of eighteen guests included just the close family connections. The rooms were made fragrant and festive with the aid of the decorations carrying out the bridal colors of pink and white and were arranged in pretty low baskets and tall crystal vases. The dinner tables were placed in the dining and living rooms and sprigs of fresh green maidenhair fern were scattered over the snowy damask and white about the arches and chandeliers. The delicious repast was served in courses and presided over by Mrs. E. J. O'Keefe, Mrs. E. R. Beyer, Mrs. J. A. Beyer and Mrs. James E. Beyer. The guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan, an uncle and aunt of the bride from Winnipeg; Miss Mabel Andrews of Willmar, and Mrs. J. D. Lewis of Grafton.

The wedding gifts were numerous and the gift room for the pleasure of the many friends who called during the afternoon to extend congratulations to the happy couple. Mr. Morgan will take his bride to Minneapolis, St. Paul and points in Illinois and to Mr. Morgan's home in Lawrence, Ill. They will be accompanied by the bride's parents. They will announce their home date on their return from their honeymoon.

Birthday and Double Wedding.
Carolyn K. Kirk, a prominent young man of Bismarck where he is in charge of the Marshall Oil company's station, left that city Sunday for Bismarck, Minn., where his wedding to Miss Lucille Willard, daughter of President Willard of the Marshall Oil company, will take place. The wedding ceremony will be a trio of celebrations for it is the young couple's wedding day, the bride's birthday and the bride's parents' silver wedding anniversary. The wedding ceremony is to take place at the palatial Willard residence at Marshalltown which has just been completed and is said to be one of the most gorgeous in the state of Iowa.

Mr. Kirk is known throughout Iowa as "Chic" Kirk, former captain of the football and basketball squads of the University of Iowa. Four hundred invitations have been issued for the wedding and many were received in Bismarck and many were received in Minneapolis.

Familiar Host and Hostess.
The Minneapolis Journal, Dr. and Mrs. M. P. Burns gave a reception last Friday evening at their home, 1828 Sheridan avenue south for the Methodist ministers of the Minneapolis district and their wives. Dr. Burns is the district superintendent and the reception is an annual affair. Seventy-five guests were present. Mrs. G. W. Critten sang and Miss Etta Cannon played piano solo. Mrs. H. G. Leonard presided at the table in the dining room which was decorated with American beauty roses and ferns. Miss Cannon and Miss Bell assisted in the dining room.

First Rehearsal Today.
The orchestra which is being formed to give a series of Sunday afternoon concerts under the auspices of the "Young People's Musical Club" will hold its first rehearsal under the direction of Prof. C. A. Lambert next Friday, and shortly after that the date for the first concert will be announced. The object of this concert plan which was proposed by Mr. Lambert is to give programs of the best music for a charge that will enable everyone to hear them.

Annual High School Football.
The annual high school football game will occur on the evening of Friday, December 1, and the committee in charge is Miss Edna Peterson, Clarence Hassell and Hume Bacon. The function will be given at the Hotel DuSable and Rorke's five piece orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music.

Meet With Mrs. Morgan.
The Royal Neighbors will meet Thursday evening at the home of the oracle, Mrs. Robert Moore, at 317 North Third street. All members are urged to attend and a special invitation is extended to Royal Neighbors who may be strangers in the city.

Guests From Winnipeg.
Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan arrived yesterday from Winnipeg to be among the guests today at the Morgan-Beyer wedding and they will remain several days to visit with relatives. They are being entertained as guests at the home of Mrs. Henry Beyer on University avenue.

Mrs. Kelley Honored.

Mrs. Clarke W. Kelley of Devils Lake is being rapidly recognized by the men and women of national organizations for her great interest and work in promoting methods of agriculture and bettering conditions of farm life and as an evidence of this recognition she has just recently been appointed delegate from North Dakota to two national conventions. Though she will be unable to attend, having but lately returned from the Dry Farming Congress held in Colorado, Mrs. Kelley will keep in touch with the associations and, as requested, will send her views on farm home life to the National Country Life Congress. The first convention to which she has been named delegate is the first American road congress of the American association for highway improvement now in session at Richmond, Va., and the other is the National Country Life Congress at Spokane, Wash., November 23-24.

To the first of these Mrs. Kelley is invited by the president and directors of the association and is also requested to read the convention on the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-teachers association to which she belongs as a delegate. This request was made by Mrs. Frederick Schor of Philadelphia, president of the latter association who says in her letter: "From Mrs. DeGormo we have learned of the brilliant work you have done in North Dakota and we would be proud to have you represent our association. Mrs. DeGormo is a well known lecturer whom Mrs. Kelley met at the Dry Farming Congress recently held in Colorado."

Class Members' Party.

Thirty young married women, all members of the Philanthropic class of the Baptist Sunday school, were delightfully entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. E. J. O'Keefe on North Sixth street. The affair was a book party and some of the costumes were splendid. All the late books of the season were represented and the most novel ones were "Evangelicalism," "The White Sister," "The Second Violin" and "Looking Backward." Mrs. E. J. O'Keefe, the class teacher, gave a splendid talk on the mission to which the class has subscribed and this was followed by a delightful program of musical numbers and readings given by Miss Lillian Paulson, Miss Gail Ridgway, Miss Ida Lamson, Miss Jane Smith, Mrs. L. A. Chance and Miss Eva Blum.

Recital at Corwin Hall.

The Wesley college conservatory students at Corwin hall will give their regular weekly recital tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the recital hall and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested in music. The program for the recital follows:

Planned a Birthday Party.

The members of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society of districts one and two were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Buchanan on North Sixth street and in the discussion of plans for the year it was decided to give a birthday party on Friday, November 26. The ladies will immediately make plans for the function and further announcement will be made later. The meeting yesterday was held at 2 o'clock with a dainty lunch served by the hostess.

Birthday for Son.

Mrs. J. A. Silverman gave pleasure to a large company of little folks when she entertained at her home on Elm street in honor of the sixth birthday of her little son, Sam. The hours were from 2 to 5 o'clock and after a program of games and music the birthday supper was served. The table decorations and Mrs. Silverman was assisted by Miss Heinrich. The guests were Rose Share, Rebecca Nyman, Jim and Ned Simon, George Chasler, Louis Goldstein, Ethel and William Krochok, Ethel Palets and Saul Silverman.

Miss Hagen Sorority President.
Since the establishment at the university of the two national girls' sororities there is always much interest in the doings of all other sororities of the country, hence the following message from Chicago is published:

"Miss Louise Hagen of Chicago was chosen national president at the annual meeting in session here today, of the Gamma Beta Sigma sorority. Other officers were elected."

Had Delightful Visit.

Mrs. W. G. McDonald and little son, Master Carter and Mrs. F. H. Carter returned last evening from a thoroughly delightful five weeks' visit with friends in Minneapolis their former home city. It had been two years since Mrs. McDonald had been in Minneapolis and her friends made her stay exceedingly pleasant with numerous visits and social affairs in honor of her and her mother, Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. McVey's Luncheon Today.

Today's honor to Miss Ferns of Iowa chapter of Alpha Phi who concludes her delightful visit here this evening was a 1 o'clock luncheon given by the wife of the university president, Mrs. F. L. McVey, at the president's house, University Place. The patronesses of the local chapter of Alpha Phi and the alumni members were the invited guests.

Gave Evening Dinner.

Mrs. H. A. Alstine, Jr., gave an informal dinner party last evening at her home in the Dinnie apartments and her company of guests included the family relatives. The delicious repast was served at 2 o'clock with covers laid for fifteen and the table decoration was carried out with yellow hyacinthums. The evening was given over to cards and "500" was the chosen game.

Mrs. Hart Club Hostess.

The members of the Tuesday club had a merry time last evening as guests of Mrs. Earl Hart at her home on South Fifth street. The ladies passed the time with needlework, cards and social chat and at the close a dainty repast was served. Mrs. Rand Smith assisted Mrs. Hart.

F. E. Packard's Birthday.
Valley City Times-Record: F. E. Packard was pleasantly surprised by a birthday party given for him by Mrs. Packard, assisted by a number of his friends. In addition to a delicious repast, the evening was given up to entertainment, during the course of which Mr. Packard was presented with a handsome Wallace Nutting picture, appropriately framed.

Weddings of the Week.

Today at Sumpter, Iowa, occurs the marriage of two prominent young Minn. people, Miss Myrtle Parmley and Truman Williams, the wedding to take place at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride. Miss Parmley left for Sumpter to prepare for her wedding after spending a year in Minn. and when she returns as a bride she will be cordially received. Mr. Truman has leased the Reihus house in Minn. and they will be at home after January 1. Several natchers and an affair have been given in Minn. for the groom and the bride has been much honored in her home city.

The marriage of Miss Emma Foley and Ray Breen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Breen of that city. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Mary's pro-cathedral by Father Hiltner and the wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flanagan.

The marriage of Miss Ragnhild Loen of Minn. and A. Sande of Harlan, Mont., took place in the bride's home city with Rev. E. J. O'Keefe, pastor of the First Lutheran church, officiating. Miss Johanna Borchardt and R. O. Loen attended the couple and the wedding dinner was served at the Waverly hotel. They were placed for ten guests. They will reside at Harlan.

A beautiful home wedding at Devils Lake Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock was that of Miss Florence Ethel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Robertson of that city, and William Wyckoff, a student of the North Dakota Agricultural College at Grand Forks. Earl Duell played the Mendelssohn wedding march for the entrance of the bride party and Miss Mary Harty sang sweetly Mary's Promise. Master Richard Martin led the bride's party, carrying the ring in the petals of a rose and the bridesmaid, Miss Vivian O'Brien of Bismarck, gown in pink crepe de chine with bouquets of pink roses, followed. Miss Isabel Iverson also gown in pink, as maid of honor immediately preceded the bride who was lovely in her robe of duchess satin with train and long bridal veil of silk illusion, and a wreath of orange blossoms. Rev. B. A. Fahn performed the ceremony in the presence of a large company of invited guests and a wedding dinner served by Misses Malvina Duell, Meta Niemann, and Leila Hazzard followed. Mr. and Mrs. Wyckoff will be at home at the Hotel Sevilla.
