

PAUL AND POLINSKY MUST STAY IN JAIL

---

Edward Paul and Sam Polinsky, in jail on the charge of having possession of and circulating counterfeit money, offered bondsmen to United States Commissioner Fressnell yesterday.

The commissioner decided the bondsmen did not suit him and informed the prisoners that they would have to remain behind bars until their formal examination or something more available in the way of bondsmen were furnished.