

MISS SARA BAZELON WEDS CHAS. HARRIS

Couple Will Visit Chicago and the East on Honeymoon Trip.

---

At 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Sons of Norway hall, Miss Sara Bazelon of Superior was married to Charles Harris of Duluth. The ceremony was performed by Rabbis Shapiro and Tremblatt of Duluth and Superior respectively and was witnessed by 150 friends of the bride and groom. Attending the bride was Miss Alice Witteberg of Duluth, while Jacob Bazelon, a brother of the bride, accompanied the groom.

The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served in an adjoining room, after which those attending danced until late in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Israel Bazelon of this city. Mr. Harris expects to engage in business upon their return from Chicago and eastern points, where the couple will spend their honeymoon. Both are well known at the head of the lakes, having lived here for years. After enjoying an extensive tour they will take up their residence in Duluth. The out-of-town people who were present were: Misses Sarah Haranimus of Chicago, and Dora Aranson, Sara Polinski, Mrs. Kronich, Mrs. N. Polson Miss Larson and Ivan Weiner of Minneapolis.
