

HIBBING FIGHT NEAR THE END

Largest Village in the State Will Vote on Municipal Officers Today.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

HIBBING March 11.—Tomorrow is election day in Hibbing and the largest village in the state will choose its officers for another year following the hottest campaign in its history, and it is expected that 1,200 votes will be cast.

Heretofore the village campaign has been limited to four or five days, tickets often being framed Saturday or Sunday night before the Tuesday election. This year, however, the "Progressive Citizens" put a full ticket in the field a month before election day, and the Socialists announced nearly a month before that time that they would present a complete ticket. The third or "Adminstration Ticket" was named about two weeks ago.

One of the sensations of the campaign was a temperance meeting called by the Scandinavian societies at Sampo Hall last evening. Various temperance workers from the Swedish and Finnish people spoke, Rupert Swinnerton, candidate for recorder, on the Progressive ticket, made an address, and Village Attorney Robert Stratton spoke for the administration. Mr. Stratton's remarks called out a reply from Mr. Swinner-ton, and personalities were bandied back and forth in the most sensational manner. Rev. T. Stanley Oadams, who was present and had been invited to address the meeting, finding that it had become a political rally, refused to speak and left the hall.

The three tickets that will be voted upon tomorrow are as follows:

Administration—For president, Dr.

H. R. Weirick; for trustees, W. C.

Barrett, J. J. Cox, Peter McHardy; for recorder, A. H. Kleffman; for treasurer, Dennis Haley.

Progressives—For president, Dr. G.

N. Butchart; for trustees, Marks

Rogalsky, Jacob Messner, W. J. Ryder; for recorder, Rupert Swinner-ton; for treasurer, David Graham.

Socialist—For president, Don J.

Rogers; for trustees, E. J. Sund-quist, R. Latz, Emil Stark; for re-recorder, A. Schmidt; for treasurer,

Henry Woupio.

Mike Gleason is also an independent candidate for village treasurer.
