

GO SOUTH ON A WEDDING JOURNEY

Young People United in Marriage at Hotel Superior Last Night.

Miss Estelle Abraham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Abraham, 1708 Sixteenth street, and Herbert Fleissner of St. Paul were united in marriage at the Hotel Superior parlors at 7:30 o'clock last evening by Rabbi Rypins of the Jewish temple, St. Paul.

About 30 guests from Superior, Duluth, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago were in attendance, all being relatives or intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by Miss Lissette Abraham, her sister, and Leon Herz of St. Paul was groomsman. Following the wedding ceremony a dinner was served for the bridal party in the hotel cafe. The decorations were pink roses and ferns.

Among the out-of-town guests were S. R. Abraham, Chicago; Estelle and Gertrude Fleissner, St. Paul; L. B. Myerson, New York; Max Abraham, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fleissner, St. Paul, and Allan and Aaron Herz, St. Paul.

Following a wedding trip to southern and eastern points, Mr. and Mrs. Fleissner will make their home in St. Paul, where Mr. Fleissner is engaged in business.
