

SOCIETY

LAST week was indeed a brilliant one socially with such important affairs in the lead as the May party at the Spalding at which the members of the Assembly were hosts; Dr. Nathaniel I. Rubenkam's lectures at the Endlon Methodist church and the Commercial club, each followed by an informal reception; the final musicale eventing of the Bishop's club, Tuesday, and Mrs. William A. McGonagle's entertainment yesterday afternoon for the members of the Saturday club. This week, Miss Alma Doering, a missionary from the Congo Bololo Mission in England, will talk each day on her work, in a different church. Numerous luncheons, dinners and dances have been planned and the next few days promise to be merry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harding and family, 2305 East Third street, have returned from a several weeks' eastern trip. They visited in Washington, Alexandria, Mount Vernon, Annapolis and other points of interest. While in Washington, they were presented to President Taft.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Barrier of Calumet, Mich., left early in the week for New York city after a short visit with Miss Dorothy Pantan. Mrs. Barrier was formerly Miss Lucille Whisler and her wedding took place Thursday, April 27 at her home.

The Minneapolis Journal of Tuesday says: Miss Nellie Myers was the guest of honor at a shower and dancing party given by Miss Sarah Rapoport and Louis Strimling, Sunday, at Richmond hall. There were 60 guests and they were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers of 907 Bryant avenue north. Miss Myers' marriage to Abo Garon of Duluth will be an event of June.

A pleasant surprise party was given Monday evening in compliment to Miss Mary De Bernardy at her home, 904 East Second street. The evening was enjoyed by the following guests: Misses Ella Anderson, Amelia Boden, Verna Landahl, Alice Carlson, Lillian Jerby, Marie Du Pres. Messrs. Edward Hagarty, Douglas McLean, Frank Farrell, George Hill, Arthur Holt, Arthur Amundson, George Stack, Alf Tippen, Walter Toben, Earl Hare, Jack Branscomb and Lawrence Shields.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Zuck, 731 East Fourth street entertained at a farewell party Wednesday evening at their home for Mr. and Mrs. George Drewett, who will leave tomorrow for Toronto, Can., where they will visit relatives until May 27, when they will sail for a three-months' tour abroad.

Progressive pedro was played and the honors were captured by Mrs. J. W. Getty, Mrs. Louis King, Mrs. H. Pearson, John Taylor, W. W. Hutchins and Louis King. Among those present: Messrs. and Mesdames—George Drewett, William Henley, W. F. Hutchins, J. Getty, J. Taylor, Z. Deslauries, A. Dunleavy, H. Gabbett, L. King, W. G. Zuck, G. J. Drewett, H. Pearson, N. Van Brunt. Misses—Olga Zuck, Jean Drewett, Edith Hutchins, Hazel De Joe, Edith Drewett; Masters—Ralph McIntyre, Carl Zuck, George Ross, Oscar T. Ellert, Albert Hutchins.

14 tables were in play at the Five Hundred party the Women's Relief corps gave Thursday afternoon at the Memorial hall of the courthouse. The favors were awarded Mrs. Fred Teske and Mrs. Mitchell. Mrs. Hulda Levi, Mrs. Barbara Sampson, Mrs. Alice Scott, Mrs. Etta Tischer and Mrs. Grace Gillon were the hostesses.

Mrs. Joseph La Vergne, 422 Fifty-first avenue west, assisted by Mrs. Jennie Gagnon, Mrs. Claudia Brassard and Mrs. J. C. Wesenberg, entertained a number of ladies at the home of the former, Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. J. P. Garland. Covers were laid for 14.

The employees of the Pantan & White company were delightfully entertained at a dancing party at the Steinway hall Friday evening. La Brosse furnished the music and about 75 couples were in attendance. The decorations were effectively carried out in purple and gold. This is the first of a series of affairs planned.

Mrs. C. A. Rose, 623 East First street, entertained at cards Friday afternoon. Three tables were played, and the favors awarded Mrs. J. Cullen, Mrs. J. Detcher and Mrs. Saxine.
