

REOPENS ON TOWER.

Roy Edelstein, the furniture man who was burned out some time ago and who recently opened up on Sixth street is back again on Tower avenue now located at number 610. Mr. Edelstein says that he is able to supply all needs of people wishing household furniture and especially stoves and other articles found in a furniture house. All of the burned stock has been destroyed and only fresh goods remain.