

MAKING HIM DO DOUBLE DUTY

The two youngsters in the picture are sons of J. Oreckovsky, 531 East Second street. One of the lads seems to prefer horseback riding to the tamer pleasures of trundling along in a carriage, while the other likes the wheeled vehicle. They have evidently hit on a way of making one pony serve both their preferences at the same time.