

SEVERAL BUSINESS CHANGES.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, Aug. 17.—H. S. Gillespie, who has been in the undertaking business on Maple street for a number of years past, has formed a partnership with Victor Loury, and the new firm has purchased the stock and have rented the morgue of John Mesbery on Chestnut street. A. W. Hubbard, who has had charge of the Mesberg morgue for several years, has gone with Hawkinson Brothers, who conduct a furniture store on Central avenue, the latter firm putting in a full stock of undertaking goods.
