Cross-country rides are much in vogue just now among the society set. Nearly every morning small groups are seen starting for near-by resorts and the outings promise to grow more popular as the season advances. Many residents are availing themselves of the opportunity of enjoying lake trips with parties of friends while others are returning from distant parts of the country where they have passed their vacations. The most important event of the coming week will be the mid-summer dance at the Spaulding, Friday evening, at which the members of the Assembly will be hosts. This will probably be the last formal affair before the return of the college folks to eastern schools.
