

MILLER-ALBENBERG CO.

HAS ARTISTIC FIXINGS

Various interesting features in the line of store fixings will be seen in the new shop of Miller-Albenberg company, 106-107 West Superior street.

The firm has added a splendid rotunda arcade store front that is really artistic and beautiful, and will be arranged for ladies', misses and children's wearing apparel.

The coat and suit section is located on the west side of the store-rooms, having well arranged compartments made of selected mahogany in a refined colonial effect, dull satin finish panels or wide beveled French plate mirrors with antique marble base. Four spacious display cases are alternately placed with corresponding French plate mirror backs. These backs form a triangle for the display of imported gowns, handsome wraps, elegant furs and exclusive millinery. Three stationary triplicate mirrors are placed at convenient points. Two beautiful costume compartments will be seen on each side of the rear center staircases, handsomely finished of selected mahogany, French plate mirror backs verde antique marble mirror and other colonial effects carried out to correspond with all other furnishings to be used for display of reception gowns, evening wraps, etc.

The waist and petticoat section are at the entrance of the east side of the storeroom, being fitted with single compartment waist cases with disappearing sliding glass doors and the top being provided with extra display cases, suitable for waists, petticoats, sweaters, etc.

The floor cases placed in front of the waist section also differ from the usual kind, having a 30-inch plate top and six-inch mahogany base, colonial effect and portable drawers and artistically carved feet.

The millinery section is fitted with individual compartments, each one having a French plate mirror panel and the center of section being fitted with full height duplicate mirrors. Numerous fitting rooms are stationed at different points.

The offices are nicely located in the rear balcony and sufficiently elevated to obtain full view of the entire store.
