Boy Taken in Custody.

Samuel Popkin, aged 14 years, 409 East Eighth street, was taken into custody by the police last night and held at the station until his parents were communicated with. It was thought the lad's feet were frozen. He claims his employment as newsboy keeps him out until 9 p. m., and he does not always go home as soon as his work is completed.

Didn't Look at Find.

George Riedel, 726 East Seventh street, who found the $1,700 in cash and checks dropped on the street by Thomas Scarlett Saturday, says he did not examine the bundle of wealth until someone called his attention to an advertisement offering $100 for its return. When he picked up the money and checks he thrust it into his overcoat pocket, he says, and being engaged with other matters thought no more about it. He does not believe he was on the street when the deposit was lost.

Takes Flery Drink.

When Oscar Anderson was searched at the central station yesterday afternoon a bottle containing Hoff's triple strong liniment was found in a pocket and set upon the desk while he was being booked. When Jailer David Butchard again looked at his charge he was astonished to observe the man gulping down the liniment. In knocking the bottle from him his hand a few drops penetrated Anderson's eye and caused him severe pain. Inside the jail he became vicious from the drug and had to be put in a cell to assure safety to other prisoners.
