

PASTOR HONORED BY CHURCH PEOPLE

Freimuth Home Scene of Reception for Rabbi Lefkovits on Fifth Anniversary Here.

The fifth anniversary of Rabbi Lefkovits' pastorate of the Temple Emanuel was marked by a reception in his honor, given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. I. Freimuth at their home, 1306 East Second street.

In the receiving line were Rabbi and Mrs. Lefkovits and Mr. and Mrs. I. Freimuth. Mrs. E. Silberstein and Mrs. M. Cornfield assisted in the dining room.

Mrs. D. L. Cohen of St. Paul, who is visiting Mrs. Freimuth, was the only out-of-town guest.

The rooms were decorated with Dresden baskets of ferns and white carnations while palms were used in an alcove. The La Brosse orchestra played.
