

CLOQUET FOLK PLAN BIG DAY

Elaborate Picnic by Commercial Club for Enjoyment of Home People Occurs Aug. 6.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE IN HANDS OF LIVE WIRES

President Cox Appoints Committees to Take Charge of Various Phases of Holiday.

CLOQUET, Minn., July 20.—Plans for "Cloquet Day," an elaborate picnic which is to take the place of the annual merchants' picnic, are shaping themselves and it looks as though this new city holiday will be a very successful affair. Aug. 6th is the date set, and as many Cloquet people have never visited the experimental forestry station, to these it will be doubly pleasant. Albert Cox, president of the Commercial club, under whose auspices the day is arranged, has appointed the following committees to take charge of the event:

Reception: Dr. Alex. Barclay, Attorney J. A. Fesenbeck, Ike Markowitz, Ole Kolseth, Judge W. H. Skemp, C. L. Dixon, Olaus Johnson, Dr. J. G. W. Havens, C. P. Osburn, W. J. Peters, Peter Olesen, T. O. Braafladt, County Attorney Diesen, J. T. Richter.

Location and Grounds: J. C. Campbell, Walt McDonald, John Long, Louis McCulloch, T. G. McWithy, Max Schiedermayer, J. F. Phellon, F. L. Redfield.

Transportation: L. P. Runkle, A. K. Oswald, Frank Elm, Hugo Schlenk, Dr. Dolan, L. A. Freeman, J. E. Lynds, H. J. Hamman.

Other committees are publicity and finance, with Editor Orlo B. Elies of the Pine Knot as chairman; program and invitation, Postmaster Vibert, chairman; evening entertainment, Alex. Summerfield; entertainment, amusements, E. S. Schiebe, chairman.
