

Lake Breezes

Wanted to Buy.

High prices paid for second-hand furniture, stoves, etc. Zenith Furniture store, 328 East Superior street. Grand 1243. Melrose 2663.

Will Look Over Mines.

C. D. Skillings, editor of "Skillings' Mining and Market Letter," left yesterday for Tower, Ely and other points on the Vermillion range, where he will look over the mines in that vicinity.

Motored to Range.

B. F. Smith of Virginia, newly appointed register of deeds of St. Louis, motored back to Virginia yesterday after having been in Duluth all week. Mr. Smith was accompanied by his wife and daughter and by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Smith, also of Virginia.

Arrange for Lectures.

Members of Duluth chapter American Institute of Bankers, have arranged for a series of lectures on banking and finance, to be delivered each Thursday night during the present season by G. W. C. Ross. A. W. Taylor of the City National bank is the president of the local chapter, which has 40 members.

Invasion of Judges.

Duluth yesterday was the mecca for three police court judges of the neighboring cities, all of whom registered at the St. Louis. Police court Judges Thomas F. Brady of Hibbing, J. P. Carey of Virginia and John Stokke of Floodwood were the three. Judge Stokke was one of those who came to the city for the "Bull Moose" party meeting at the St. Louis.

New Fish Market.

L. Goldish, a well known Duluthian, who has been in the wholesale fish business for the past 10 years, has opened a new up-to-date retail fish market at 208 East First street and will be known as the Lake Superior Fish market. Mr. Goldish wishes to thank his patrons for their past patronage and hopes they will come and see him in his new market. He also assures the public that nothing but freshly caught fish will be sold.

Seeking Old Resident.

Baron H. de St. Laurent, consul for France, with offices in Chicago, has written the police for information relative to the whereabouts of Adrian Orsolini who was a resident of Duluth in 1897, living at 211 Superior street. The communication does not state whether the place of residence was East or West Superior street. The baron says he has been instructed by the authorities of France to locate Orsolini.

Accused of Larceny.

Dave Wilson was arrested last night charged with grand larceny. He is accused of robbing his friend, Gus Sun, while the two were occupying the same room at the La Salle hotel. Sun says his friend walked off with his watch, worth $100, and $14 in cash. Wilson did not appear at the La Salle since the date of the robbery until last night. When he walked into the lobby he was recognized at once and the police summoned.

Ran Away From Home.

Louise Kane, a negress, was arrested here yesterday on complaint of her parents who live in St. Paul. It was reported that she ran away from home the first of the week and the father learned she had come to Duluth. She is 17 years old and is being held pending instructions from her home.

J. J. Friedman and family who expect to leave for Chicago this week, are at present stopping at the Holland.