WITH the Shrine auditorium decorated in patriotic colors and colored lights and with the stage in a gold and white effect, the Riverside marine band gave a delightful program at the Christmas assembly held last night for the benefit of the Children's home. Eighteen hundred tickets were sold prior to the concert and there was a large sale at the door.

In contrast to the usual formal charity balls, last night's entertainment was a democratic affair, a general "get together" of all Duluthians interested in the welfare of the Children's home.

Opening with the brilliant "Hail to the Spirit of Liberty" (Sousa), the band played in each number on the program with a dash and spirit appreciated by the large audience. To those who recalled how short a time the band has been in existence, the concert proved its remarkable progress of this organization of the McDougall-Duluth shipyards.

The program given follows: "Hail to the Spirit of Liberty" (Sousa); "Semaramide" (G. Rossini); "On the Way to Mandalay," vocal solo, C. W. Knott; "Joyful Tidings" (Lefhure Nevin); violin solo, Olaf Severson; "William Tell" (G. Rossini); "In the Bazaar" (Leigh); "Winter Song" (F. Billard); "Grand Fantasia Maritima."

Dancing followed the concert. Daniel Mahoney was chairman of the floor committee, of which the following were members: Ralph St. Clair, L. G. Bradley, H. T. Hoopes, Caldwell Harris, M. A. Nicholls, G. I. Wright, Frank Falk, Carlisle Helmbach jr., R. C. Helm, W. Newcomb, Douglas Walker, L. Goodman, Gerard Spencer and W. D. Savage.

AMONG the popular younger men who are home for the holidays are Theodore and James Wahl, sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Wahl. They are students at Culver Military academy.

MR. AND MRS. H. SAPERSTEIN and daughter, Elaine, Eighth avenue East, left Wednesday for Chicago, where they will spend the holidays with relatives. Mr. Saperstein will return on Monday, but Mrs. Saperstein and daughter will remain indefinitely.
