EVELETH, Feb. 9.—The debate at the high school on Commission government tonight was a most interesting contest resulting in a unanimous decision in favor of the affirmative speakers. They were Irene Campbell, Ethel Wilk and Jacob Saari, the latter taking the part prepared by Katherine Pennock, Charles Crotter, Gilbert Finnegan, and Percy Pryor took the negative side. Both sides of the question were well handled by the young debaters and a large crowd was out to hear them, including several members of the Eveleth Charter commission. The judges were C. H. Morrell, A. E. Pfremmer and Miss J. A. Cleveland. Aside from the debate several numbers, musical and instrumental were given by members of the Crescent Literary society.
