

SCHOOL CONCERT AND OPERETTA AT EVELETH

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, March 1.—The students of the high school and grades are rehearsing for a school concert and operetta to be given this month which promises to eclipse any previous effort along this line. Monday evening the Crescent Literary society will give a patriotic program of numbers bringing out the life of Washington. The musical numbers will harmonize with the rest of the program. The following program will be given.

Musical selection, High School orchestra; recitation, "Freedom's Flag," Mauritz Nordstrom; piano medley, Sara Rabinowitz; paper, "Washington," Roland Davey; recitation, "Grandmothers Story of Bunker Hill," Lois Johnson; music, selected, Girls Glee club; reading, "Battle of Trenton," Harry Roberts; musical selection; orchestra; song, "America," by the school. During the program Supt. B. O. Greening will give out the prizes awarded for the essays in the contest of naming the new school building. Hugo Newberg will receive $3, Axel Brandt $2, Salina Saari, $1. The program is under the direction of Miss Jessie Schenider of the German Department.
