

DELAY TOWER

Specifications May Be Changed to Provide for Macadam at Third Street.

COMMISSION TO CONSIDER PROPOSITION THIS EVENING

Property Owners on Remainder of Street Will Have Choice in Paving Materials.

Tower avenue, at the intersection with North Third street, will likely be paved with plain macadam instead of the present material to be put in on the city's main thoroughfares in work now proposed. The action is understood to be taken in deference to the wishes of D. R. Long, who has protested on behalf of the city against a more expensive paving than macadam. This runs up Tower on both sides.

Dr. Conan owns the two-story brick building on the northwest corner of Tower avenue and North Third street, and it was largely because of the protest of Mr. Long and his representatives that the paving specifications as ordered prepared by the council did not provide for having the northern end of the paving at North Third street instead of the north line of North Third street, as finally passed. The new specifications must be provided it is possible that final action on the paving may not be taken at the meeting tonight by the commission as has been planned.

Awards of scavenger contracts for the year may be made on bids which the Commissioner of Public Works is expected to open at the meeting tonight. There are a number of bids at around the usual figures for the various kinds of service.

CLASS LEAGUE IS BEHIND SCHEDULE

Gold and Rainy Weather, With Other Handicaps, Make the Delay.

Sophomores	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Juniors	6	1	1.000
Seniors	1	1	1.000
Freshmen	0	1	0.000

The cold and unseasonable baseball weather which has prevailed over the playing fields of Superior since the opening of the season has prevented the interclass league of Superior high school finishing their schedule of six games. Only two of the games have been played.

The schedule was to have been completed before the opening of the inter-scholastic contest between the teams representing the Duluth and Superior high schools. The games which were scheduled for Friday and Monday will probably be played the latter part of this week or the teams will play double-headers. Every effort will be made to play the game between the Sophomores and Seniors which is on for this afternoon.

Charles Wedge is to be toastmaster for the occasion, and an informal program of musical and other selections is now being arranged to be given in addition to the short talks. It is probable that practically all the members will be asked to speak briefly. A photograph concert is to be given by Russell Brothers and the Bowlers' quartet will sing.

LIFEBOAT DRILLS ON ATLANTIC LINERS IN NEW YORK HARBOR INTEREST SIGHTSEERS AND PROVE INSTRUCTIVE TO MEMBERS OF CREW

NEW YORK, April 30.—The Titanic disaster has already done much to make ocean travel safer. Boats leaving New York now are carrying more lifeboats and life rafts than they have been carrying, and boats arriving here are having lifeboat drills to show that the boats can be lowered and that they will float when in the water. The evidence taken in the senate inquiry into the Titanic disaster has shown that there was no lifeboat drill during the brief trip made by the boat before her career

WOULD DIRECT CHILD'S PLAY

Proposition to Secure Expert for Vacation Months Up to City Commission.

PUBLIC WELFARE SOCIETY BACKING THE MOVEMENT

The university authorities have agreed to send expert for the summer.

The matter of employing a playground supervisor for the vacation months to instruct and direct the activities of both boys and girls toward wholesome outdoor recreation is being given serious consideration by the city commission and it is believed likely that such a step will be taken. The matter has been put up to the commission by the Public Welfare society through a committee and may be considered at the meeting tonight. The society is very anxious to secure the small appropriation which would be required for putting the plan into effect. The officers hold that much good will result. It is thought that approximately $200 would answer every purpose and that an expert could be brought here.

The university authorities at Madison have assured the Welfare society officers that they can furnish a proper person for the arrangement for employment to be made, and it is from Madison that the expert will be secured. It is proposed to have the position open only during the summer, and all the work in connection with it would be along systematic and tested lines, planned to keep the children busy and out of mischief, and at the same time benefiting their health through wisely directed recreation.

TELLS CLUBMEN OF INCOME TAX

Assessor Bubar in Talk Denies Many Charges Made Against It.

A large audience of business men gathered in the Commercial club assembly room yesterday to hear George A. Bubar, income tax assessor, explain the income tax law.

Mr. Bubar in his talk compared the income tax of Wisconsin with that of Minnesota, going into particular detail concerning the tax on credits in the two states. The assertion that the state income tax law is a tax on labor was attacked by the speaker. "Take two men working on a job at the rate of $1,000 per annum each, one married and the other single," he said. "The first man owns his home and pays $20 tax, while the single man pays nothing under the old law."

The income tax laws in this case would make the single man pay income tax if he had no dependents. The married man would have to pay no income tax and his tax would probably be cut 10 per cent. The married man, therefore, would have to pay $15 to the city, county and state, and the single man $2.

According to Assessor Bubar several penalties are inflicted upon an assessor found guilty of disclosing any business secrets.

protests against the improvement, were received and referred to Councilman Tomlinson, and an effort will be made to agree upon some sort of paving which will meet the approval of those interested. Appointed to Library Board

Capt. Larry Brennan was yesterday named by the city council to succeed Harry Ashton, the appointment being effective today. This, according to a well-defined report which lacked official confirmation, and which created considerable surprise.

Captain Brennan has been street commissioner of Superior and is otherwise qualified to most satisfaction. The council's decision is a surprise is due to the suddenness of the change and the admitted faithfulness and ability of the man he displaced. Brennan is a well-known local personality and it is the intention of the commission to put Ashton in some other ward.

Andrew Johnson, who has been appointed street foreman, and Gilbert Gulberson, street clerk, will be named to succeed Charles Anderson, resigned. Except for the fact that it was planned to abolish the place Anderson would have been a strong contender for the position, and he sought it. During the time he has held office more street work and public improvements have been put through than for any similar period prior to that.

STRENUOUS EXERCISES TO WARD OFF OBESITY

"Huntress" is going fat. The clever impersonator of feminine type, who is appearing at the Broadway lives in mortal fear lest the day comes when his waistline will have become so large that he will be compelled to forsake the life of endeavor. "Huntress" spends several hours a day in the most strenuous exercise, trying to keep down his girth. Only heroic treatment enables him to stave off the enemy, the feminine "beast."

Joe attempting to "make weight" has an easy time of it compared to "Huntress" strenuous endeavor. He is able to keep down his girth for two hours a day is only one of the lesser means of keeping down weight. "Huntress" is not so lucky. He is not becoming too muscular as a result of fighting the "beast" but is a natural athlete, and quite a boxer in regular, but when he exercises to keep down fat it makes his muscles bulge to such an extent that the illustration of the "Huntress" is a true one. He has the appetite of a hired man and it is with difficulty that he refrains from satisfying his craving for rich, fat-making foods.
