

MANY CONVICTIONS SCORED BY WOODS

Strong Cases Brought by Him at
Chisholm—Several Are Fined.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

CHISHOLM, May 2.—Judge Master's office was a busy place all day with cases brought by the game warden. William Beckman was fined $100 and costs for illegal fishing, which he paid. C. F. Olson, who conducts a boarding house here was fined $25 and costs for fishing out of season. He paid.

Elmer Swanson, a saloonkeeper, was fined $10 and costs for purchasing fish out of season. His fine was suspended. Sol Rubloff, a saloonkeeper, was fined $15 and costs on the same charge. He paid up. M. Haberman was caught in the same trap and was fined a small amount.

Andrew Berglund and Louis Strong who were taken into custody by Warden Woods, were lodged in jail.
