

PUPILS GRADUATE IN HEBREW SCHOOL

Four Classes Receive Diplomas in Presence of Congregation of Friends and Relatives.

Closing exercises for the Moses Montefiore school was held last evening at the Adas Isreal synagogue, Third avenue East and Third street. Four classes representing 150 scholars held their graduating ceremonies.

A good program of recitations composed of Hebrew Jewish, and English dialogues and readings were given by the scholars. Among those who took part in the program were Sadie Schnleder, Annie Goldfine, Annie Singer, Sarah Pollnski, Lina Albett, Minnie Zimmerman, Eva Cohen, Lillie Weiner, Leola Albert, David Prekoffski, Hirst Rachlin, B. Horowitz, M. Oreck, Joseph Horowitz, G. Cassimir, Harry Levin, J. Usan, Milton Cohen, Oscar Goldstein, D. Jackobs and Theodore Klatzky.

Among the scholars who were awarded prizes were Harry Levin, Hirst Rachlin, G. Cassimer, M. Oreck, N. Ossinski, J. Usan, Harry Goldish, Sylvester Meyers, Milton Cohen, Lesley Horowitz, Oscar Goldstein, Jacob Goldish, Theodore Klatzky.

At the close of the exercises a special prize of a box of candy was distributed to each of the children.

The synagogue was crowded with parents and friends of the children. A feature of the graduation was the privilege of the parents to question their children on any passages of the Bible, which the children would translate in either the Hebrew or English language.