

EVELETH ELK TO RETURN FROM PORTLAND SOON

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, July 27.—George E. McCormick, who attended the convention of the grand lodge Order of Elks at Portland last week, is expected home in a few days. Mrs. McCormick accompanied him on the trip and at present they are sight-seeing in the Yellowstone Park.

Miss Teckla Jackson, librarian at the high school, is spending her vacation with friends in Ishpeming, Mich., and will return about Aug. 15.

Mrs. C. U. Jenkins and children leave tomorrow for a visit of several weeks with relatives at Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Sam Ellis, of the firm of Ellis Bros., left this week for eastern points to purchase a merchandise stock for their department store here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowdon are spending a few days with friends in Calumet, Laurium and other Michigan points.