

Paletz-Papernmaster Wedding.

One of the most interesting and largely attended social functions of the winter season will be enjoyed by Hebrew society this evening when Miss Ness Paletz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Paletz, will be given in marriage to Mr. Isadore Papernmaster of Fargo, a son of Rev. and Mrs. V. Papernmaster of this city. The nuptial vows will be spoken in the parlors of the Knights of Columbus club rooms in the presence of elegant appointments and a company of 250 guests. The groom's father will perform the marriage ceremony, using the full nuptial ritual of the Hebrew church, and after the marriage, an elaborate wedding dinner will be served.

The bride will be beautifully gowned, and her attendants will be her sister, Miss Esther Paletz, as maid of honor, and Miss Anna Paletz, another sister, and Miss Bertha Wezler as bridesmaids. The groom's escort will be his brother Sam Papernmaster of Fargo, as best man and Abe Hiller of Winnipeg and George Papernmaster, another brother, as groomsmen. The Fishman four-piece orchestra will render the wedding music.
