

INTEREST GROWS IN JULY 4 BILL

Promoters Add More Attractions to Athletic Card at the Baseball Park.

As the time approaches for the big double-jointed athletic card at the Duluth baseball park, July 4, interest grows more intense and numerous inquiries have been received by officials of the Greater Duluth Athletic club.

The promoters have added three more attractions which should appeal to the fans. Two four-round boxing bouts, the first between Abe Edelson and Harry Azine; Len Hanneberry and Ted Hempstead will be staged. The bouts will be strictly amateur of two minutes each. All contestants are evenly matched bantamweights. Chris Person and Martin Johnson will meet in a wrestling bout.

Joe Carr who will meet Walter Miller of Duluth in a wrestling match for the middleweight supremacy, as the feature of the bout of the afternoon, will arrive in Duluth Tuesday from Minneapolis. The winner of the bout will wrestle Mike Yokel for the world's championship.

Carr is working out with Dr. Jorgens, heavyweight; Carl Mattson and Dan Larkin. He realizes that Miller will be a tough proposition and he is trained to perfection. Carl Mattson will accompany him here.

Miller went through another workout yesterday with Chris Person, who says he is in the best condition of his career. Hard training in the open air has aided Miller greatly and he believes he will have no trouble in winning.

This will be the first time in Duluth that ladies will attend a wrestling match in any number. It will be the first time that a bout has been staged in the open air in the Zenith City.

O. A. Rosto's monoplane will be ready for its first flight. More names arrived yesterday for the monoplane and the judges will have a hard time selecting a label.
