

The SOCIAL SIDE of LIFE

SOCIETY WILL ENJOY OUTINGS

Little Formal Entertainment,
Nearly All Going to Summer Cottages for the Day.

BENEFIT PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN'S HOME PLANNED

Mrs. J. M. Smith Gives Bridge Party in Honor of Her Aunt of St. Paul.

There was little entertainment of a formal nature yesterday, many society folk going out to their summer cottages for Independence day and the week-end. Several informal dinners took place at the Northland Country club, following the afternoon bridge, and the Kappa Tau Phi fraternity of Central high school gave its annual dinner at the Commercial club.

At the latter affair, Richard Cullum was toastmaster, Willard Matter responded to the toast, "Retrospect;" Dean A. Blakeney, to the toast "Intro-spect;" and Julius Nolte, to the toast, "Prospect." Short speeches were given by the remaining guests. Present were Arnold Filzer, Earl Hubbard, Horace Blakeney, Raymond Smith, Sherman Powell, Meredith Helm, Joseph Chapman, Theron Hawkes, Rolline Hawkes, Walter Fraker, Kenneth Barrows, Arthur McMillan and Lawrence Dow.

Richard Cullum and Joseph Chapman had charge of arrangements. Kappa Tau Phi has been in existence eight years. The banquet last evening was one of three affairs given annually. A mid-winter banquet is given in honor of the members home from college for vacation and a reunion banquet is given in the fall before the university men who belong return to school.

A benefit program for the Children's Home will be given at the Young Woman's Christian association Wednesday, July 23, by a group of music pupils of Mrs. D. H. Day, assisted by children who will give dancing numbers. Six pupils of Mrs. Day will give piano numbers. They are: Louis Gombert, Mary Weiss, Helen Hudson, Marie McGreevy, Isabel Jacobs and Cordella Collins. Interpretive dancing numbers will be given by Misses Mary Cotton, Josephine Cotton, Charlene Bagley and Marguerite De La Motte.
