

NEWS OF THE RANGES

STUDENTS BACK TO THEIR STUDIES

Young Men and Women Who
Have Been Enjoying Holiday
Resume Work.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, Jan. 7.—All of the Virginia young men and women attending the various schools and colleges have ended their holiday vacation here and gone to take up their studies. The Misses Delle H. Lindsay, Enid Wilcox and Dagmar Dahl, are in the sophomore year taking the academic course at the University of Minnesota; Leighton Simons is a sophomore in the law course at the state "U;" Dan Mahoney is a sophomore in the medical course at the state "U," as is also Gerald Roskilly; Alfred Hill and Michael Bonner are freshmen in the dentistry department at the University of Minnesota; Carl Hawkinson is a sophomore in the forestry department at the state university, and Harlan Johnson is a freshman in the same department.

Ray Simons is a senior at McAllister college, St. Paul; Harry G. Neff is at the University of Michigan, a freshman in the law department and Samuel Cohen is a freshman, taking the academic course, also at the Michigan university. Hulda Johnson is a sophomore taking the academic course at the University of Wisconsin. Stephen Quayle is taking the engineering course at Madison and is in his sophomore year. Vernon Johnson is a freshman, taking the academic course at the Wisconsin school. Axel Dahl is a freshman in the law course at Chicago university. Edward Berg is a junior, taking mining engineering at Washington university. James Ballie is taking manual training at the Stout training school at Menominee, Wis. Celia Murphy and Anna Sullivan are at the Winona normal.

Gladys Parmalee, Gladys Roskilly, Emily Pue, Irene Gauthier, Ida Mattson and Lucy Perkins are at the Duluth normal; Genevieve Murphy is at the Superior normal; William Hooper is at the South Dakota School of Mines; Ben Wilk is a senior in the engineering department of the state "U;" Harry Wilk is a freshman in the law school at the state "U;" Ruth Hobbs is a sophomore, taking the academic course at the University of Minnesota; Marie Butler is at St. Catharines college at St. Paul; Hazen and Patrick Butler are at St. Thomas college, St. Paul; Hank Boyle, who formerly resided in Duluth but has spent all his vacation periods for a long time on the range, is at Ann Arbor, taking an engineering course, specializing on construction work.